

American Jewish University 2025 Annual Security Report

The Jeanne Clery Campus Safety Act, known as the Clery Act, requires all institutions of higher education that participate in federal aid programs to distribute this annual report. General questions may be directed to the Office of Academic Affairs (academicaffairs@aju.edu). This report is prepared by the University's Clery Compliance Coordinator in collaboration with other campus partners, including those in AJU's Title IX and Human Resources departments. This report's crime statistics for property owned or controlled by the institution are gathered from campus security authorities and police departments with jurisdiction over AJU's Clery Act geography including the Los Angeles Police Department and the Simi Valley Police Department. You may obtain a paper copy of the report upon request by contacting academicaffairs@aju.edu.

AJU prohibits unlawful harassment of students, employees and external parties on the basis of any protected characteristic as identified above.

AJU also prohibits retaliation against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by University policy or law, or because the individual makes a good faith report or complaint, testifies, assists, participates, or refuses to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under the University's Policies and Procedures on Prohibition of Sex Discrimination and/or Prohibition of Unlawful Discrimination, Harassment, and Retaliation.

REPORTING A CRIME, EMERGENCY, OR SECURITY ISSUE

AJU expects members of the campus community to abide by applicable laws both on and off campus. Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to promptly and accurately report crimes, including in situations where the victim elects to, or is unable to make such a report. In the event of an emergency, including medical emergencies requiring immediate attention, students, faculty, and staff should first call 911 and then campus security at 310-440-1590 or 310- 948-2065. Non-emergency criminal actions and security issues should be reported to campus security, which will report them to appropriate law enforcement agencies (normally the West LA Community Police Station).

Reporting to Professional and Pastoral Counselors

AJU does not directly employ professional counselors, but has entered into a partnership with TimelyCare, a virtual health and well-being platform available 24/7 for degree-seeking students. No insurance is required to use TimelyCare. AJU's degree-seeking students have access to the following services:

- TalkNow: 24/7, on-demand emotional support to talk about anything, including anxiety, relationships, depression, and school-related stressors,
- Scheduled Counseling: students may choose the day, time, and mental health provider that works best for you. (12 visits per year),
- Self-Care Content: Visit the Self-Care tab for 24/7 access to tools and resources, such as meditation and yoga sessions, helpful videos, and short articles from experts

Additionally, and for all students, AJU has entered into a partnership with Maple Counseling, a longstanding Los Angeles counseling services center. The goal of this partnership is to provide Jewish community members with affordable mental health support. Individuals residing in California may contact Maple to access therapy sessions at no more than $25 per session. Additionally, Maple employs so-called Coverage Counselors who can assist you in navigating private or public insurance to secure external mental health professionals.

CAMPUS SECURITY

Campus security guards monitor entry to the campus, enforce parking regulations, and otherwise secure the campus. Campus security will report violations of local, state, or federal laws to appropriate authorities. Security personnel on campus have the authority to detain individuals while criminal actions are being reported to appropriate authorities, but do not have the authority to make arrests.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

The evacuation of campus buildings or the entire American Jewish University Campus may be required due to the emergency situations occurring on or near the campus. Whenever possible the evacuation will be done in a systematic, controlled, and planned manner.

To facilitate the safe evacuation of campus buildings and to help inform emergency responders of urgent needs, the campus utilizes an Emergency Response Plan. This program is staffed by specially trained volunteers (the Emergency Response Team / ERT) who work in individual classrooms and offices within buildings on the campus. When an evacuation is ordered, the ERT are responsible for:

- assisting in the safe and complete evacuation of a building.
- preventing non-emergency responders from re-entering an evacuated building.
- reporting injured or trapped persons to emergency responders.

In order to facilitate the safe and orderly evacuation of the campus, a Staging Area System may be employed to control the release of people. This system would normally be used following a major disaster where the buildings have been deemed uninhabitable and a full campus evacuation has been ordered.

Additional emergency procedures relevant to earthquakes are detailed in the Student Handbook.

ALCOHOL AND DRUG POLICY

AJU complies with the U.S. Department of Education zero tolerance policy for alcohol and drug use/abuse as stipulated in the Higher Education Act. The unlawful possession, manufacture, distribution, use, sale, or gift of alcohol or illicit drugs is prohibited in and on AJU property, or as part of any AJU activity. This includes being under the influence of alcohol and/or any illicit drugs. Students are expected to comply with all federal, state and local laws. Marijuana is illegal according to federal law, regardless of medical recommendations or state law. The use, possession, manufacture, or sale of illicit drugs, the misuse of prescription drugs or other legal substances, and the possession of drug paraphernalia is prohibited on campus. Any student who violates this policy is subject to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the University, referral for prosecution and/or referral to an appropriate evaluation or rehabilitation program. AJU complies with state and local laws related to alcohol and drugs, including reporting the sale or distribution of illegal substances to the proper authorities.

REPORTING SEXUAL ASSAULT, DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND STALKING

AJU prohibits all forms of sexual harassment and misconduct, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. AJU strongly encourages persons who experience sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking to report the incident to local law enforcement at any time, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, by calling 911. Sexual misconduct may be reported at any time, regardless of how much time has elapsed since the incident occurred. The University will assist with contacting the appropriate law enforcement agency upon request. Individuals also have the right to decline to notify law enforcement. If the individual decides to pursue a criminal complaint, the University will cooperate with law enforcement agencies to the extent permitted by law.

Anyone who has experienced sexual misconduct is encouraged to seek medical care and preserve evidence if they choose. Preserving evidence is important in these cases. Evidence collected can be used to support a report to the University and/or law enforcement and may be helpful in obtaining a protection order through the court system. In order to preserve evidence, an individual who has experienced sexual assault is encouraged not to change clothes, bathe or use the bathroom before seeking medical assistance. Those who have experienced stalking are encouraged to keep a timeline of unwanted contact and copies of any unwanted communication such as text messages, snapchats and phone calls. Those who have experienced dating or domestic violence are encouraged to document any injuries they have experienced.

In addition to pursuing criminal charges through the legal system, an individual who has experienced sexual misconduct can choose to report the incident to the University, which provides the option of addressing the incident under the AJU Policy on Prohibition of Sex Discrimination. Reports should be made to:

AJU Title IX Coordinator:
15600 Mulholland Drive Los Angeles, CA 90077
Phone: 310-440-1571
Email: titleix@aju.edu

The Title IX Coordinator receives annual training and ongoing training throughout the year on issues related to sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking. They are also trained on how to conduct investigations and hearings in a fair and equitable manner, without conflicts of interest.

The University prohibits retaliation against those who file a complaint or third-party report, or otherwise participate in the investigative and/or complaint resolution process (e.g., as a witness).

Individuals who report sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking have a right to receive information about counseling, advocacy, health care, legal assistance, student financial aid, visa, and immigration assistance and other services, both on campus and in the community. They also have a right to assistance with their academic and/or working situations such as:

- Changing work environment (e.g., reporting structure, office/workspace relocation)
- Exam, paper, and/or assignment rescheduling or adjustment
- Receiving an incomplete in, or a withdrawal from, a class (may be retroactive)
- Transferring class sections
- Temporary withdrawal/leave of absence (may be retroactive)
- Campus safety escorts
- Alternative course completion options

The University will offer and implement appropriate and reasonable supportive measures to parties involved in a report. Supportive measures are nondisciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate and as reasonably available. They are offered regardless of whether the individual chooses to formally report the incident to the University or to law enforcement, and they are offered without fee or charge to the parties, to restore or preserve access to the University's education program or activity, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties and the University's educational environment. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for implementing supportive measures, if measures are requested and reasonably available. Supportive measures may include:

- Referrals to counseling and/or employee assistance programs
- Referral to community-based service providers
- Student financial aid counseling
- Education to the University community or community subgroup(s)
- Increased security and monitoring of certain areas of the campus
- Altering work arrangements for Employees or Student-employees
- Academic support, extensions of deadlines or other course/program-related adjustments
- Class schedule modifications or withdrawals for students
- Leaves of absence for Students or Employees
- Directives/orders limiting interactions between parties
- Trespass or persona non grata (PNG) instructions
- Any other actions deemed appropriate by the Title IX Coordinator

Supportive measures provided to the victim are kept confidential to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

Upon receipt of a formal complaint or notice of an alleged policy violation, the Title IX Coordinator initiates a prompt initial assessment to determine the next steps the University needs to take. The Title IX Coordinator will contact the Complainant to offer supportive measures and determine whether the Complainant wishes to file a formal complaint. The complaint can be resolved through an informal or a formal grievance process including an investigation and a hearing.

Three options for informal resolution are available:

- 1) Supportive Resolution. When the Title IX Coordinator can resolve the matter informally by providing Supportive Measures (only) to remedy the situation
- 2) Alternative Resolution. When the Parties agree to resolve the matter through an alternative resolution mechanism including mediation, restorative practices, facilitated dialogue, etc., as described below, often before a formal investigation takes place. Please note, mediation is prohibited to resolve allegations of Sexual Assault, Dating violence, Domestic violence, and Stalking, even on a voluntary basis.
- 3) Accepted Responsibility. When the Respondent accepts responsibility for violating Policy, and desires to accept the recommended Sanction(s) and end the Resolution Process.

It is not necessary to pursue Informal Resolution first in order to pursue a Formal grievance process, and any Party participating in Informal Resolution can stop the process at any time and begin or resume the Formal grievance process.

Once the decision to commence a formal investigation is made, the Title IX Coordinator appoints an Investigator to conduct the Investigation. The investigation is an objective evaluation of all Relevant Evidence obtained, and all Parties have a full and fair opportunity, through the Investigation process, to suggest Witnesses and questions, to provide evidence, and to receive, review and provide feedback on a written Investigation report that accurately summarizes this evidence. All investigations are thorough, reliable, impartial, prompt, and fair. AJU will determine whether there has been a violation of the policy using a preponderance of the evidence (“more likely than not”) standard. Once the final Investigation Report is shared with the parties, the Title IX Coordinator will refer the matter for a hearing. The Title IX Coordinator will designate an appropriate Decision-Maker to chair the hearing and provide a copy of the Investigation Report and the file of directly related evidence. At the hearing, the Decision-maker(s) have the authority to hear and make determinations on the conduct described.

The University will make a good faith effort to complete the resolution process within 90- 120 working days, including appeal if any, which can be extended as necessary for appropriate cause by the Title IX Coordinator, who will provide notice and rationale for any extensions or delays to the Parties as appropriate, as well as an estimate of how much additional time will be needed to complete the process.

Parties have the same opportunities to have others present during any institutional disciplinary proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by the advisor of their choice. The parties may elect to have an Advisor of their choice present with them for all meetings, interviews, and if appropriate, hearings during the complaint Resolution Process, if they so choose. The parties may select whoever they wish to serve as their Advisor, as long as the Advisor is willing, available and does not have any conflict of interest in the matter. The Parties may be accompanied by their Advisor in all meetings and interviews at which the Party is entitled to be present, including intake and interviews. Advisors should help the Parties prepare for each meeting and are expected to advise ethically, with integrity, and in good faith. Advisors cannot provide testimony or speak on behalf of their advisee, unless granted permission to do so.

The Parties are notified simultaneously, in writing, of the outcome of the hearing, the available procedures for appeal, the outcome of any subsequent appeal(s) and when such results are final.

The University encourages reporting of sexual misconduct and seeks to remove any barriers to making a report. The University recognizes that an individual who has been consuming alcohol (including underage consumption) or using drugs at the time of the incident may be hesitant to make a report because of potential consequences for that conduct. To encourage reporting, an individual who makes a good faith report of sexual misconduct that was directed at them or another person or participates in an investigation as a witness will not be subject to disciplinary action by the University for a conduct or policy violation that is related to and revealed in the sexual misconduct report or investigation, unless the University determines that the violation was serious and/or placed the health or safety of others at risk.

All AJU community members including students, faculty, staff, volunteers, visitors, and any individuals regularly or temporarily employed, studying, living, visiting, conducting business, or having any official capacity with AJU or on AJU property, are expected and required to comply with AJU's Title IX policy.

AJU's Title IX Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the University's compliance with Title IX, which includes providing education and training; tracking and reporting annually on all incidents in violation of this policy; and investigating, responding to, and resolving all reports under this policy. The Title IX Coordinator is knowledgeable about, and will provide information on, options for addressing and resolving complaints about discrimination on the basis of sex and gender (including sexual misconduct).

Reports addressing potential violations of Title IX may be filed by emailing TITLEIX@aju.edu, or by visiting or calling AJU's Title IX coordinator. Title IX reports and complaints may be submitted anonymously. Anonymity may limit the University's ability to investigate and otherwise address the content of reports and complaints.

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act requires the University to advise the campus community that information provided by the State of California concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained on-line at <https://www.ca.gov/departments/223/services/1132/> or by contacting the Los Angeles Police Department.

AJU will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim.

RISK REDUCTION AND BYSTANDER INTERVENTION

Individuals impacted by sexual and relationship violence and harassment are not to blame for the harm they experience – individuals who perpetrate violence and harassment are accountable for the impact and harm they cause. It is important to consider a range of strategies across prevention, intervention and risk-reduction to help create a safer University community. Here are a few ideas to reduce risk for yourself and others around you and increase your awareness of safety (adapted from the Rape and Incest National Network):

- Trust your instincts and stay aware of your surroundings. If a situation or location feels unsafe or uncomfortable, it is okay to leave.
- Try and stay with individuals you trust and avoid isolating yourself or others.
- In social settings, go with a group of friends, arrive together, check in with each other throughout the event and leave together. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way out of a difficult situation.
- Pay attention to your drinks. Watch how it is made and who makes it, how you feel when consuming, and avoid leaving it unattended. When possible, keep it with you or get a new one if you must leave it unattended. Be mindful of drinks that are available in large, common source open containers.
- Watch out for your friends and vice versa. If you have concerns about your friend's behavior or for their health and wellbeing, help get them to a safe place and consider resources available.
- If you need to get out of an uncomfortable or scary situation, here are some things that you can try:
 - Remember that you are not obligated to do anything you do not want to do or be nice to someone who is scaring you or is making you uncomfortable. "I don't want to" is always enough reason. Do what feels right to you and what you are comfortable with.
 - Have a code word with your friends or family so if you do not feel comfortable you can call them and discretely communicate your discomfort if needed. Create a plan with your friends or family for how they can respond, such as calling you to create a distraction.
 - Come up with an excuse. If you do not want to hurt the person's feelings and you need to leave, create an excuse – you need to call a friend or family member, that you are not feeling well, or that you are supposed to meet up with someone.
