OUR FACILITIES

American Jewish University's Brandeis-Bardin Campus is situated on 2,700 sprawling acres located just 40 miles northwest of Downtown Los Angeles. Nestled among rolling hills just outside of Simi Valley, the Brandeis-Bardin Campus seems miles away from the hustle and bustle of city life, while remaining just a short drive from the greater Los Angeles area.

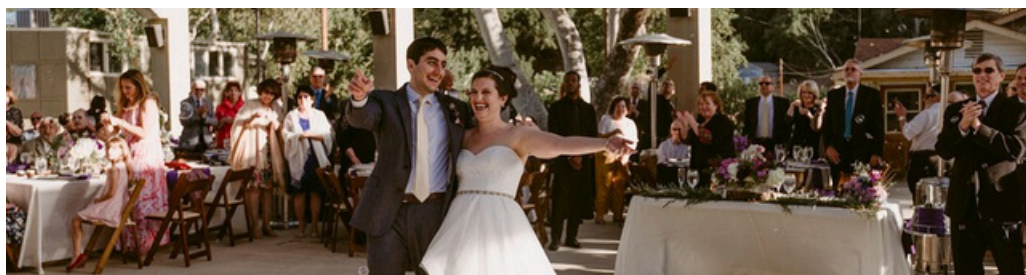

Accessed through a canopy of towering peppercorn trees, the lush, landscaped grounds feature multiple indoor and outdoor spaces, including rustic barns, beautiful gardens, modern pavilions, and our famous House of the Book. Additionally, our unique outdoor spaces offer breathtaking views of the Santa Susana Mountains as a stunning backdrop for your event. Our Brandeis-Bardin Campus also has no noise restrictions, convenient on-site parking for cars, shuttle or vans, and overnight accommodation options for your guests.
